Jevan Singing "I Remember - Keyshia Cole"

I recorded it again, hopefully a bit less humming this time. It was a little quiet at first then my voice kicked in. Seemed like I remembered to be louder suddenly. If I'm not careful it sounds all too quiet.

I'm going going to an indian vegan cooking class tonight. I'm not vegan just decided to go anyway.

Now I've been. Haha. The Entree was delicious tastes a bit like falafals except it's potato. Main course a bit plain but still good. Desert a bit weird.

entree: aloo tikki (potato pancakes)

main course: aloo matar tomatar (peas, tomatoes, potato)

desert: halwa

Today I checked my mail and I got my letter from the ATO about my tax refund. Thank goodness.

Now I'm just listening to music and looking at all my emails in my mailbox and wondering what to do about them haha.

"Finally Some Trance" The question is, have I finally made some trance? I have to wonder, because it does still sound a bit jevan-ish, no matter how hard I try to make some trance. In my opinion this is the worst composition I have ever made in my entire life, that song. Lol. But I'll keep it because maybe someone will like it. It makes the other songs look good haha.

Today I had my volunteer work and uni. I could never be an ESL teacher there would be too many students with english problems.

Regarding www.jevan1.com (music/originals, karaoke, and covers): If your internet connection is interrupted momentarily or not fast enough, it can skip to the next song in the playlist. It's not the best song player I guess. The best thing to do if that happens is to find the list of song links down below right click and save link as, to save the song to your hard disk and then play it from there. See where it says "Here are the mp3 music files for the songs above."

I thought the best bit of my "finally some trance" song was near the end, when that melody sound stops. But I guess some people like the melody, it does add some body to it, makes it feel more like a real song. Only in some of the quieter bits can you properly hear what the underlying harmony is doing. It's alternating between a few bass notes and then a few some other instruments notes then back to bass etc keeps alternating.

I'm going to a jazz concert tonight. Rachael Thoms and Luke Sweeting

I'm jokingly just rearranging the word "Arousing" or ARowSing (sounds like it) to change it to AColumnDance. Column instead of row. Dance instead of Sing.

9 Sep 2011

I've only had half a can of voka/orange UDL its already getting to me and I'm making mistakes already haha. As you can see it's "vodka" not voka. So I'm typing mistakes already. and I sent one of laura's email jokes back to her by accident. Thought she might like it again haha. Well not really, because it was an accident. I'm setting up some groups in my outlook express now, so I can easily email people some of the jokes i receive (the best ones) and know it will go to the right people.

I like pretty coloured lighting. I used to own some christmas tree lights and I hung them on my wall of my room when I used to live with my mum a long time ago now. I don't bother to anymore now though would use too much bluetack and the power cable might not reach anyway.

I'm from canberra as you probably already know. Place of berrys boysnberries raspberries blackberries hang on isn't that a ipad or something blackberry well mine is the Can Berry - Berra. Just Joking haha.

What more would you like to know about me? There is more... if you seek you will find.. haha that's the ad for seek.com.au job website. It should be if you seek you probably won't find because there's heaps of other applicants. I'm tipsy too. topsy turvy. well i'm not everywhere just here in my seat.

ESL is "English as a Second Language". ESL teachers usually teach migrants children, and sometimes the adults themselves. I'm not doing an ESL program. Most of the students in our reading program can speak english. But they have trouble with reading. They didn't do much reading at home so never got good at it. So this program aims to help them.

Yes it's necessary to be patient, like doctor and patient, just joking hahah. I mean calm and waiting on them to achieve slowly, that patient.

I'm more of an indoor person than outdoor. I'm a door I live in the door (indoors) I open and close all day long sometimes I get sick of opening and closing so I become Stuck hahaha. Just Joking. haha

By email and by chat, come hither or come whither by nigh or by sigh, we will chatter. i hope :)

I glance at you and i see... a cat! just joking a kitten of course so playful and happy. Or a cat just lazing about and purring and occasionally meowing a meow of kingdom come i mean meowdom meow.

meowser. My trousers is losing meowsers. Its furring. defur-inating. malting. giving off ovaltine i mean malt hahaha

yes well its not arousing its ameowsing. it arouses meows in me. hhahaahah

You'll find me in my place at 1 Low Street High Suburb Medium LetterBox In Between Road A and B lets call it A Split by B partway X intersection yes X marks the Spot when you find an X you found my place. Except the X might have rubbed off haha.

Made u look u dirty Chook. Remember that saying from primary school? i guess it wasn't really all that nice. i mean your not exactly a chook. just that this message is starting to look like a book. without a hook. ahh rhyming it always works everytime.

Hi cutey, miss cuteness. Thanks for the wink. Do you like pink. Can i have a dink on your bike. Do you think? Is there a kink in this email oh dear ive run out of rhyming words. Its a tragedy a traversty, a kakadu cockadoodledoo ahh but u never told me your name. how was i supposed to know @m1R was AMIR. ok i will email her and tell her that you dont want to say hi to her. obviously i impact negatively on your impressions of her coz of my forgetfulness. but i dont think u even told me? i dont see any messages from you saying you told me your name. how was i supposed to know. shall i check my inbox. do i need proof? court of law legal proceedings are proceeding to see whether i was told your name. if i am right then you have to write to my mum and give her a formal apology for retracting your Hello

I'm presently at university doing WPF (windows presentation foundation) (C# under this), windows forms (C# under this), and mobile programming (silverlight or xna for windows phone 7).

I'm on the list for public housing, which will make my rent a lot more affordable when i can get it, especially now that i'm not working. I anticipate to be offered a place around december, but I suspect their estimates are a bit optimistic.

I saw Luke Sweeting/ Rachel Thoms live twice. Once at the street theatre before vince jones, and once at the launch of the CD. I haven't actually listened to the CD yet, its still sitting in my draw. When I get around to it I'll run audiograbber over it and capture it into mp3 format for my hard disk, so I don't need to put the CD in the CD-player-draw to play it. That's what I usually do with my CDs. Too much hassle having to deal with a disc.

hi ho hi ho hi ho hi ho hum who hoo hee haa hehehehehehe. how's it doing?

I saw a movie today called "the change up" it was quite good actually. But funny that they had to piss into the fountain in the middle of the mall with people everywhere, in order to change back. They had to enquire about where the fountain had been moved to since it was moved the day after so they couldn't change back straight away. He didn't sleep with anyone so he didn't cheat on his wife even though he was in his friends body. How faithful they really were. That guy was after single pregnant women.

im sometimes 1-y or 2-y sometimes even 0-y (naught-y)

Wed 14 Sep 2011

I saw mum last sunday (11 sep). We had lunch at ricardos cafe in jamison, for dinner we had an artichoke each and lentil soup. Mum has frozen the rest of the soup (assuming to add more vegetables to it e.g. broccoli). brrrrrrrrrrrrkk buk buk buk brk brkcoli broccoli we went to bunnings to buy a sprayer (for weed spray) she got the one called 'industrial' with good seals.

Mum had a meeting with flynn primary group at flynn which then moved to her house so I went on the computer for a while. Actually I played the piano for about 30 mins while she was at flynn. I'm up to "F" now in practicing my 2 5 1's (starting with C a while ago). I play 2 5 1 in LH and then improvise over the major scale in the RH, for both inversions of LH (b3-7-9-13 or 7-9-b3-5 ie 7 on top or 3 on top), then I play root/base note in LH followed by chord in LH while improvise in RH. (RH=right hand).

We watched a dvd called "Every Day" which I remember was an ok movie except i've forgotton what its about now its been too long.

There's no lecture on friday it was cancelled because the lecturer is at a conference. Good to see she is keeping up with things. The lecturers always seem to know a lot.

Regarding fire in mitchell. I could see the plume of smoke from UC (belconnen area/ bruce) when I went to do my homework today. It was quite a long way away but certainly visible. If the wind changes direction it could carry the smoke in this direction, but I don't think it will. It seems to be blowing the other way, towards dickson & watson. I'm a fairly long way away in fact maybe 8-10km?

I found two new websites girlsdateforfree.com and guysdateforfree.com i've joined the second one it's great get free access to the chat room and there are women on there too, i went into the international room and chatted to a few different people.

I went to the podiatrist last week because my right foot big toe and 2nd toe right foot (the right side) was ingrown. She fixed it, but now its hurting because its so short. She cut the side quite far down. Oh well i guess its all for the best, soon it won't hurt and then it'll be perfectly fine i hope :) Your not surprised i had an ingrown toenail problem again i guess. The operation was on the left side of the big toe right foot, and the left side of the big toe left foot, that side is fine no problems there at least.

I think today is chilean independence day. Not that i did anything special for it. Just listening to music here.

I just bought a bulb for my room, not a dimmable one. The dimmable ones are too glowy and brightlike it was irritating my eyes trying to look at the pc screen with that bright dimmable bulb in the socket. Now I've got a non dimmable one (energy efficient) and it seems perfect. Much cooler glow. Seems much easier on the eyes. 12W? Almost as good as the regular bulbs they used to make before the energy efficient ones came out. Except lower wattage. What? Whattage? what wattage whennage? whichage? whatage? im 39. thats what age. oh wattage. well im 39. i mean, its about 12W i think of power used. its measured in watts. Whats it measured in? Whats me call it? Watts. Oh I see. hang on i'll check the exact wattage.

its 11W philips classic shape energy saver, warm white, 80% energy saving, long life 3yrs, endorsed by planet ark. 11W BC B22 22-240V 50-60Hz, 2700K warm white, 570 lumen 51 lm/W

Actually 11W is too much so I changed it to 9W Cool White. My eyes are not sore after changing to that one. Warm White might be alright too if 9W I'm not sure. It's only just OK. But I don't want to be too dim. dim sim. Hahaha. yes dont be a dim sim.

Look at my drawings I made today. Lots!

"The following was created using trillian chat (windows live messenger) on 2011sep17" (near the bottom of the page)

mai mai. may i may i chat wid u. mai mai mai mai mai mai mai. just joking haha. got carried away too many mai's. theres only 2. saving, conserving, mai's. conservation of Mai. not of mass haha. for every mai theres an equal an opposite mai. just joking haha. newtons law of physics. for every reaction there is an equal an opposite reaction.

Sun 18 Sep 2011

I'm seeing mum today so it feels like saturday but really it's sunday.

Anyhow today mum and I had lunch at black pepper cafe in belconnen (across the road from the mall). There was a bit of fire in a plant a few blocks down and some guy was rather concerned, apparently the fire brigade had come and dug up a bit of the mulch but it looks like it ignited again somehow. Mum thinks its spontaneous combustion from the mulch. Anyway we told the cafe and they're aware of it, they already knew about the issue from before.

I'm drinking lemon juice with raspberry cordial and mineral water. The lemon juice seems to make me lose weight. I'm down to 99.7kg now (lost about 1kg). I wonder whether the scales are correct, I couldn't possibly lose that much. Maybe because I've been to the toilet today that could be it. Seems like i'm pooping out all the fat. Well its going somewhere. Ahm i guess its only 1kg could be a natural variation. Wait till it gets down to 90kg then I'll believe it. The power of lemon juice! It's amazing actually.

Actually I don't think lemon juice makes one lose weight, since over a longer time it doesn't seem to have made much difference (drinking it only wed/thu/fri of each week).

It looks like mum has been going to the National Gallery of Australia Australian Architects Series Lectures. I was thinking of going too except I've got university at that time.

At black pepper cafe I had risotto (with just a tad bit of cheese on top). Also chocolate brownie and hot chocolate after. I'm surprised I'm 99.7kg after eating all that. Maybe the scales are wrong, mums scales always seem to go wrong her old scales used to say I was 90kg when i was in fact 100kg. Maybe her new scales are slowly creeping downward in weight continuously, to make it look like i'm losing weight when in fact i'm not.

I cut my left hand nails with scissors and right hand nails with clippers at mums place. I cut them longer than last time i tried cutting them at mums place so they didnt bleed or complain they are quite happy in fact.

Mums gone to some kind of meeting and I approved myself onto her skype contact list so I should be listed now. I'll have to email olivia (my sister) and tell her to approve me too.

I can string a sentence together, just get some glue. Actually I'm not perfect at it I mean, unless there's something to be said. Sometimes it can be hard thinking of something to say. Any hints?

19 Sep 2011

Maybe one day I might travel but, I don't like the idea of sitting on a plane for a long time. Seems terrible to me. 5hrs was the longest flight I had and that was to perth from canberra. 17hrs to the USA from australia seems just, far too long. I'm not sure how long it would be to europe. But I'm not looking forward to it so, I don't think I'll go, frankly. Maybe I'll just go to frankston, frankly haahaha. Frankston is in melbourne (victoria) Australia Lol. I've been there one time. But I don't know anyone there. I think maybe I'll just travel to places within australia, seems better to me. Maybe one day I might go to perth again, it was a nice place, apparently a bit hot, but I had air conditioning in my unit while I was there so it was OK.

I'm sweltering I don't know why it's so hot today. I guess I'll have to take off my thermals. It's really quite warm today. Yes that's what I'll do. Easy solution. Requires a bit of effort though i've gotta take my trousers off first will I bother? Ahh yes I think I will it's too hot.

On sunday mum and I saw "ceremony" (a dvd) which was an OK movie a bit unfortunate that they didn't actually tell us what happened in the end, did they get married or did she go with the writer, the writer could never afford to support her so it seems not. And his children's books that involved blood and gore, seems a bit too violent to me, children might have nightmares if they read it or even daymares haha. At least it had a good ending but he needs an editor to edit out the violence from the childrens books he writes if he's going to succeed.

Today I'm cooling down rapidly after having taken off my thermals. Will I freeze over? I don't think so. It's still warm enough to endure. But much cooler actually. Bearable. My body is giving off heat like a thermos flask on heat, or on a bunsen (gas) burner Umm it would melt oops not like that. Haha. Its giving off heat like a desexed dog on heat, or even like a desexed cat on heat. They give off more and more heat but it doesn't do any good coz they're neutered (desexed). Hang on do they actually give off heat, or just get horny. Well in my case I'm giving off heat.

Ho Ho Ho How Hum Who Hee Ho He Ho Fi Hum where is the gist of my tummy tum tum and my drum have a crumb

I didn't get the jobs I applied for but I got bored of applying for jobs and decided to study instead so now I'm doing a master of information technology at university (just started). Lets hope I pass! and I need to do the assignments too!!

The play was great (aug 25), it was gertrude's hamlet. I'm ushering for another play this thursday-grease. I'm sure you've heard of it. Quite likely. I wonder what the play will be like, lots of singing I suppose. Will be interesting to see.

20 Sep 2011

How's it doing? Chatter we will and Pitter Patter of Chattering Fingers (not feet haha).

bob was bobbing in the water, bob was a good swimmer coz he used to bob.

Bonking Bananas? eww

I think I'm going to put the mouse traps away soon, the mouse seems to have Gone obviously evaded the trap and escaped into netherland. Come whither or come hither it must be a blithering bandicoot. Haha oh glance. glancing at glance. glancing at glance. oh glance. what a glancer. a glacier of glances

21 Sep 2011

Desexed cat means the cat can no longer make babies. I don't know exactly what the operation involves, the vet does it. Both male and female cats can be desexed. Dogs can also be desexed I guess. After all otherwise there would be puppies all the time.

I'm no longer wearing thermals. It's a decent temperature now.

22 Sep 2011

Me, Myself and I, a do a diddy diddy dum diddy do. Got a Clue play ClueDo. Um have you ever played that game? I can't remember what it's about now. I think it's a board game?

I'm sleeping fine these days. I have some meditation oil (link is on my website under other/candles) and if I can't sleep then I put some of that on my nose, seems to fix the problem quickly. Actually I put it on the inside of my wrist and then dab it from there onto my nose, so that the roll on doesn't touch my nose.

23 Sep 2011

Yes I'd like to corres-pond we could even corres-lake possibly even corres-pool or corres-wet. Just Joking.

25 Sep 2011

Today I'm having a pure blonde premium lager beer already drank it that probably explains why my memory gone. Hmph it would have gone anyway.

3 Oct and 10 Oct are public holidays in the ACT (only 3 oct in NSW).

28 Sep 2011

I've just finished assignment 1 for 7110 unit, thank goodness, what an effort! You should see my DataGrid its full of pretend information. Now I've got to do assignment 1 for 7200 unit. Will hopefully start it tomorrow, its due friday week.

My chat friend marie has AVAST free antivirus on her computer, she lost internet access to her browser and it came back when she disabled the antivirus, she doesn't know why but the antivirus was malfunctioning. So I've told her to uninstall avast and install avg. I had the other problem, I was having problems with AVG so I uninstalled it and installed AVAST. My mum has the paid version of AVG. She hasn't had any problems with it. I've got AVAST and it seems to be working fine to me but, it has an expiry date of november. I don't know what will happen then, whether I can get another free licence for another year. I might have to change back to AVG. What antivirus do you use? My dad was using norton but its expiring soon, he has to decide whether to renew it.

Actually Avast can be renewed for another year of free antivirus, fortunately, so that solves my issue. I'm not sure how long one can keep renewing it. It came up with a box saying do i want to renew it and whether i want free or paid version to renew as.

I am going to lunch tomorrow at Calibre Cafe Woden (across from APK) its at 12.30pm, canberra friendship group has organised it, 5 people are going.

30 Sep 2011

If i was a little puddy, i would have to meow. puddy cat of course. yes i would meow, meow, meow. wow. bow wow. oh hang on thats a dog. woof woof. bow wow. why do they say dogs go bow wow, they dont bow or wow they just woof woof.

I've just finished the second assignment and submit it today so now both assignments done.
Yahoo! I'm free as a bird! (well for a week of uni holiday anyway). We only get 1 week holiday.

I'm coming down with a cold. But it shouldn't last long I wouldn't think, since I'm keeping warm again now. Thermals on again.

1 Oct 2011

I had cheese on toast for lunch (with onion). I need to buy some crackers since she has brie but no crackers. She's got lots of apple juice a whole bottle. So I've had some of that. Also she has cordial and mineral water.

i hope i pass these damn darn assignments. maybe i should have put an image scan of some string in the submission box, for DARN assignments. Hahahaha. Unfortunately the assignment box is actually online its an online submission of a ZIP file containing the assignment. But I'm sure i could have placed an image inside the zip file, of some darn for the darn assignments.

I'm raggedly taggedly saggedly in a baggedly state im all bagged up with just a pc and tagged. ! its jagged. oh haggad. am i gagged into using tagged? but i lagged behind in my 2 legged wheelbarrow. maybe you nagged me on tagged. my virtual cat wagged its tail to all tagged members. its zig zagged patterned tagged pic.

The second matrix movie is a bit confusing whether they are in the matrix or not. There seems to be this last human settlement that is risking being taken over by the machines. The key maker was killed. Poor guy was innocent, all he did was make keys. He seemed to have a key for everything. I only watched the first part, didn't feel like watching the second dvd that came with it.

New Song! Me Singing

<http://www.jevan1.com/pages/music-jevanSingingKaraoke.html>

16. I Still Believe - Jevan as Mariah Carey
i-still-believe--jevan-as-mariah-carey.mp3

hope u like my latest song singing. i made it last night thats where i was. its a hard one, some bits harder, but i managed it, with flying colours, skipping greens and yellows, jumping tangerines and magentas, walking blues and flying reds, hahahahaa. the colours are flying and the black & whites are dying. ahmmm the black doesnt work properly on mums printer, so i have to print in blue or some colour

how about we vegemite it. or even jam it dadadadadada dooo sing and jam. lets bread our friendship. bread and butter the bare bone necessities. we could bone it. but that might be a little too sexual. bare bone it but that might be a little too graphic and nude. sugar and spice and all things nice. we could have some cinnamon and toast. speaking of toast. i had toast for lunch with cheese ham tomato and lettuce and onion. yummm. heres a toast to u. three drinks and a spear (mint icecream).

Have a listen to:

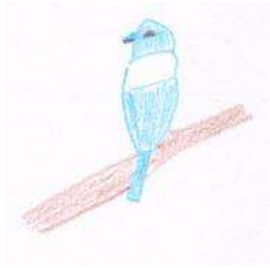

piano-2
piano-3-allKeys
piano-4

piano-4 is the best one.

The drawings I have done are at:

<http://www.jevan1.com/pages/art-drawing2.html>

Here is a sample pencil drawing I made:

New song "minsang-kita-iibigin--jevan-as-regine-velasquez.mp3"

I don't speak tagalog (philippines language) but I did manage to sing this song in tagalog by imitating the original singer and looking at the english writing of the sounds in the youtube video. Hope it sounds OK... I tried to put some emotions into it.. its not easy.

13 Oct 2011

The poor dainty doggy is doggone getting dopily dizzy. LoL

New Song

<http://www.jevan1.com/pages/music-jevanSingingKaraoke.html>

"Its my turn"

its-my-turn--jevan-as-diana-ross.mp3

My Messenger chat I use is yahoo messenger or windows live messenger or trillian.

Yahoo dle oodle oodle oooooo all ready to chat with uuu (one day)

one day, in my life, i will chatatat tat with you a you you longalong long long long

<http://www.jevan1.com/pages/music-jevanSingingKaraoke.html>

aint nobody (V2b)

just sung it now

V2 is in a different key to the other one and also I could hear the original singer when I sung it (turned off original singer and turned on karaoke before exporting as mp3). I synchronized the karaoke recording (instruments only) with the original tune you see. Then turn on original tune to record me singing, and turn off original tune and turn on instrumental to export as mp3.

V2b has the gap taken out of the start (so it sounds normal).

15 Oct 2011

Today I had a boost smoothie except I found two little bits of plastic in it (I don't think glass, since they don't use glass). It put me off drinking the rest of it so I threw it away.

My mums pc rebooted on me twice while i was over there. It was coming up with a memory message too when I rebooted it, I ignored it. It seemed to think the amount of memory had been changed, which isn't true. Maybe the memory is having problems. CRAFT striking a computer? Hahah.

I'm going to a cards night tonight. Hope it goes OK. canasta.

It's in fisher. Sounds Fishy? Hahahaah actually its the name of the suburb.

I've practiced playing a game of canasta online. I lost unfortunately hahah. Oh well not to worry. At least I refreshed with the basic rules.

16 Oct 2011

assignment 1 i got 18/20 for 7110 assignment. Haven't yet got mark for 7200 assignment 1. Well at least i passed haha Canasta last night. Everyone is dealt 15 cards each. It uses 4 packs of cards. Need 1 black and 1 red canasta to go out. Not sure about scoring. I think <3000 is 50, 3000..5000 90, 5000.7000 120, 7000+ 160 (initial meld). Something like that i'm not sure exactly.

17 Oct 2011

Those dogs in my pencil drawings (as were most of the things in the pencil drawings) were from "yahoo images" I put in dog into the search engine and see what images turn up and then look at it and try to draw what I see. The piano was mums piano. The jug and toaster and sink were mums. I was actually trying to draw the objects under art/other that I had tried to draw when chatting with marie, one time, she said draw a dog and so I drew a dog but I really had no idea what a dog looked like by memory so it didn't come out all that good, you can see what I drew on my webpage under art/other, the pencil drawings were designed to be better versions of those drawings, where I was allowed to look at the object (or photo of it) while drawing it. Then it doesn't matter if I can't remember what it looks like because it's right there in front of me.

Tue 18 Oct 2011

Poke you poke me poke poke pokemon hahaha just joking

On monday 17/oct I caught the 12.14pm 17 bus to belconnen, met mum at the bus interchange at 12.37pm she was on the 314.

We had lunch at a cafe, we both had lasagna + salad. Then we walked to the video store miles away well seemed a long way, it was down by the lake near the light house bar, to the left, we borrowed a dvd called "something borrowed" and then walked back to the mall where we had a carrot cake and smoothie (I had a strawberry smoothie mum had a lemon lime & bitters) at lido cafe. We caught the bus to mums house. We did a few sudoku's I have discovered that its more fun not doing all the possibilities, rather, mum helps me when she finds one to tell me how she found it or clue and i can look myself until its done. I'm not sure how but somehow we managed to do 2 sudoku's without all the possibilities written in.

For dinner we had salad & salmon, most of the salad came from mums garden (leaves of whatever its called various things). For desert we had chocolate sauce pudding, mum made it in a bowl and then cooked in the oven.

The dvd was quite good about this woman (lawyer) who loved this guy except he was engaged to her best friend because she had never admitted to him that she loves him always just stayed friends and when her best friend came into the picture she'd let her take over. In the end they got back together again and cancelled the marriage. So it had a happy ending. Mum said it was unexpected. Maybe she was thinking he would follow his parents advice and marry the other one the one they were going to marry was engaged to.

I am applying for some volunteer work at an old persons residence called carey gardens (low care), help with board/card games and computer/ internet help. I'm going to see them on tuesday at 3.30pm so wish me good luck.

Thu 20 Oct 2011

I'm fine thanks (except for my right foot big toe next to my nail hurts sometimes but hopefully should recover eventually).

Fri 21 Oct 2011

Speechless in seattle. oh wasnt it sleepless in seattle? Haha. Except it should be speechless in canberra coz thats where i am. Its a speechless city for a speechless world. and a speechless horn from a speechless new born baby reindeer. Do reindeers have horns if not substitute something with a horn. but not a car! Has to be alive.

Goodbye

Thank you for reading this newsletter. I hope you find it as entertaining as I did in writing the things that went into it at the time.
